2017 SPLOST

Chairman Philip Jay opened the meeting by discussing the $918,000 decrease in the County projects done by the City.

Mayor Mark Masee was present and explained the reason for the decrease in $918,000.

Vice-Chairman Daniel Cowan stated he understood from the previous meeting with the City Administration the purpose of the current meeting is to settle the proposed Joint Services items and then move on to the County and City proposed items.

Chairman Jay asked the Commissioners what was their pleasure concerning what would be discussed in the current meeting. The Commissioners chose to continue on in just discussing the proposed Joint Services items at this time.

The Commissioners discussed line by line and cost by cost in the proposed Joint Services.
