

Chamber's Friday News!

January 17, 2014

Introduction to MainStream Band.

Mainstream Band will be the entertainment for the 88th Annual Meeting, Thursday, January 23, 6:30 p.m., Wiregrass GA Technical College.

Mainstream Band is a Country, Southern Rock, Rock n Roll, Classic Rock, 50's, 60's, 70's, 80's, 90's, and today's music with "Electrifying Solos, Dynamic Duos, Powerful Vocals with wireless & lead technology, which allows everyone to be part of the show!!! We play everything from The Eagles, Bon Jovi, Elvis, Luke Bryan, Jason Aldean, Blake Shelton, and everything in-between. Mainstream Band has something for everyone. They strive to be the best band in the Southeastern United States."

The Mainstream Band has been out pushing their way into the music scene to bring the fans an exciting, high energy show that all of the fans can enjoy. With the unique sound of Jack Brinson on vocals and guitar, the dynamic style of Todd Willis on bass, the fire setting drum genius Andy Wilson on drums, and the fastest fingers on a keyboard is Steve Taylor, and the premier talented lead guitar player, aka Uncle John is Mike Ritchea. This band has a mix of sound you don't want to miss.

The Mainstream Band has recorded 3 original songs entitled "Chevrolet Girl", "Crutch", and their first released song that was re-recorded "Fortunate Accident". We are working on some more originals for a full length CD coming soon. They also will be doing a video on "Chevrolet Girl" soon.
